TILEING IS A FAILURE

Long Shot Defeats Favorite at New Orleans Track.

PASADENA, AT 15 TO 1, WINS

The Englishman an Easy Second. Lady Navarre, Second Choice in Betting, Runs Third-Loser Is Heavily Backed-Keyes, on Winner, Rides a Good Race-Meeting at an End.

New Orleans, March 2.—The fourth session of racing under the auspices of the Crescent City Jockey Club came to a Clere this afternoon The usual Saturclose this afternoon. The usual Saturday stake was carded, and it was called the Railways Handicap.

In the betting Tileing was a hot favorite around even money, and form players figured that the only chance he had to lose was to fall down. Tileing was giving away a lot of weight to older horses, but that was hardly considered. The colt, after showing a lot of speed for five furlongs, stopped.

The winner turned up in Pasadena, a Son cheap plater, that has been showing little SEVENTH RACE-Six furlongs. form here this winter. There was 15 to 1 about the winner, and Keyes, who had the mount, rode a very good race. The Englishman was an easy second, while Schroeder's Midway. 101 Kleinwood. Englishman was an easy second, while Ellison's Lady Navarre, second choice in the betting, was third.
